v.

REPEAL NOW, AURORA ACTION
NETWORK, & ADVANCING
ALASKA ACTION

Respondents.

Matter No: 26-08-CD
Consolidated with: 26-06-CD

PRE-HEARING MEMORANDUM

Pioneer Law, LLC, by and on behalf of Respondent Repeal Now, respectfully submits its Pre-Hearing Memorandum in advance of the August 26, 2026 hearing

REPEAL NOW'S PRE-HEARING MEMORANDUM
26-08-CD/26-06-CD

scheduled in the Commission’s Notice of Hearing and Procedural Order dated August 11, 2026.

I. RESPONSE TO STAFF REPORT

A. Section 1: AAN’s Principal Place of Business & The Paid-For-By Disclaimer Requirement

APOC staff concluded that AAN’s principal place of business is Anchorage, creating a test focusing on certain of the factors mentioned in Hertz Corp. v. Friend,¹ a United States Supreme Court case creating a test to determine a corporation’s principal place of business for federal jurisdictional purposes.² Repeal Now does not contest this reasoning or conclusion.

APOC staff concluded that AS 15.13.090’s requirement for a paid-for-by disclaimer on all communications technically requires that the true source be identified but that such a result “could lead to disjointed results that were neither intended nor contemplated.”³ Repeal Now does not contest this result, and notes that this conclusion is consistent with the disclaimers used statewide by other campaigns.

B. Section 2: Reporting Discrepancies Between AAN and Repeal Now Reporting.

Regarding the Stella contribution, there was only ever one $6,000 contribution. Repeal Now believes that AAN’s July 7, 2025 filing originally reported it as $5,000 and later corrected it. Repeal Now disagrees with APOC staff's recommendation to allow the Complainant in this case to "clarify its allegation" regarding the Stella contributions: such a course allows the APOC proceedings to continue to be weaponized for political reasons. Repeal Now respectfully requests the Commission to decline this recommendation and consider this matter closed following the hearing and the Commission's final decision on this matter.

² APOC Staff Report (August 14, 2026) at 9–14.

³ APOC Staff Report at 6–7.

Regarding the allegation of contributions in the report dated August 9, Repeal Now admits that its August 9, 2025 report was erroneous, and has submitted an amendment to correct this error, attached here as Exhibit A.⁴ This error was inadvertent.

Regarding the allegation that Repeal Now's September 13, 2025 Independent Expenditure Report listing a $30,000 August 29, 2025 contribution received from AAN, Repeal Now has submitted an amended report, attached here as Exhibit B.⁵ This error was inadvertent.

Regarding the allegation of an October 20, 2025 discrepancy, Repeal Now agrees with staff that this allegation should be dismissed for lack of sufficient evidence.

Regarding the allegation of $15,000 missing from an Independent Expenditure Report following Repeal Now's receipt of the contribution, Repeal Now has filed an amended report, attached as Exhibit C.⁶ This was inadvertent.

⁴ Exhibit A.

⁵ Exhibit B.

⁶ Exhibit C.

Regarding the allegation of AAA's $5,000 contribution to AAN, that amount has been refunded from AAN to AAA, mooted the issue.⁷ Regarding who bears the duty to verify the accuracy of true sources, an issue likely to resurface, AAN continues to assert it as a recipient should not be held responsible for reporting true source information other than what is provided by the donor. APOC staff disagrees with this proposition, but fails to articulate when a receiving party of a contribution has such an obligation and what standard that obligation must meet. Repeal Now respectfully asserts that is constitutionally vague. If APOC intends to require the receiving party to undertake due diligence as to the accuracy of true source information received from donors, it should develop a standard such as the FEC's "best efforts" standard, whereby:

Committees and their treasurers must make best efforts to obtain, maintain and report the information required by law with respect to itemized receipts and disbursements. When reporting information is incomplete, the political committee and the treasurer will be in compliance with the law if they can demonstrate that they used "best efforts" in trying to obtain, maintain and report the needed information.⁸

It is Repeal Now's desire to fully comply with Alaska law. However, in this instance, ⁷ In October of 2025, Repeal Now contacted Advancing Alaska Action ("AAA") to confirm the true source of the $5,000 donation to AAN. AAA told Repeal Now it was the true source of the donation to AAN because AAA had generated its revenues itself. Consequently, Repeal Now listed AAA as the true source on Repeal Now's APOC filing.

In early June of 2026, AAN processed a refund to AAA. It is Repeal Now's understanding that since AAA's donation was returned, there would be no need for AAN, and thus Repeal Now, to list the true source of the donation.

⁸ More explanation on this standard can be found at FEC.gov, Best Efforts to Document Receipts, at <https://www.fec.gov/help-candidates-and-committees/best-efforts-document-receipts/>.

Repeal Now does not know the true source of the $5,000 contribution to AAN and thus has no way to comply with the staff's recommendation. If the Commission orders Repeal Now to disclose the true source information for this contribution, Repeal Now respectfully requests that the deadline to disclose be within 10 days from when Repeal now receives that information.

The remaining allegations on this topic are not against Repeal Now so are not addressed in this Memorandum.

C. Section 3: YouTube Disclaimers, Lot, Inc. Contributions, Quarterly Reports, & Misidentification of Ballot Initiative

APOC staff found no violation for the lack of disclaimers on Repeal Now's YouTube videos on the basis that Repeal Now's homepage of YouTube (and all other social media accounts) has the identifier linked, which is consistent with a prior Commission order (AO 10-09-CD). Repeal Now agrees with the Commission's decision and respectfully requests that the Commission lift its order that Repeal Now's videos without the disclaimer be removed (which Repeal Now promptly did while this matter was under review — all of them).

Regarding the Lot, Inc. mix-up, Repeal Now has confirmed the true source is Lot, Inc. Repeal Now had thought that it fixed the error at the time of its last filing. There is a technical issue with fixing this reporting, that Repeal Now is unable to correct. Emails between Repeal Now and APOC on this issue are attached as Exhibit D.⁹

⁹ Exhibit D.
REPEAL NOW'S PRE-HEARING MEMORANDUM
26-08-CD/26-06-CD

Regarding the filing of quarterly reports, Repeal Now understands and will file quarterly reports, and respectfully requests technical clarification on how to do so: this option is still not available in the Repeal Now report schedule in the filing portal. Additionally, Repeal Now respectfully requests clarification on whether APOC wishes Repeal Now to back-file the previous quarterly report. Cheryl has asked APOC about both of these issues.

Regarding the mis-identification of the ballot measure at issue, this mistake was inadvertent and has been corrected.

D. Penalties

Repeal Now does not object to the staff's recommended penalty of $471.25 following application of the mitigation factors. As APOC staff noted, this is Repeal Now's first election cycle, is an inexperienced filer, and none of the violations resulted in a great degree of harm to voters. Repeal Now will pay the penalty and comply with any future direction from APOC on these matters.

II. WITNESSES & EXHIBITS

Repeal Now does not intend to call witnesses. The exhibits Repeal Now will bring to the hearing are those attached to this filing.

III. CONCLUSION

Repeal Now respectfully requests the Commission affirm the August 14, 2026 APOC Staff Report in all respects except those noted above.

Dated this 21st day of August, 2026.

You are understanding correctly as I am trying to amend the 6/17 versions.

The reason is APOC's Aug 14 Staff report on Better Elections v Repeal Now, page 23, directs Repeal Now to amend the two June 17 reports to change a contributor's name (from Jim Lot Turner to Lot Inc.).

That's why I'm trying to do. Any suggestions on how I can amend these two reports?

Thanks again.

Cheryl.

Maybe I am not understanding your question. I see the report that was amended on 7/10 and 6/17 (see screenshot below). Are you able to see this and have the option to amend it? You won't be able to see the 6/17 amendment any longer because the same report was amended on 7/10 and is now denoted as "Filed Amendment 7/10/206." Let me know if you want to have a call about this one.

John,

I'm still unable to find the two IE reports that I attached to my original email that need to be further amended. They are pre-cursors to the attached 7/10 amendment, if that helps (both dated 6/17/26).

Can you help find them?!?

As always, thanks.

Hi John,

I'm working on the issues identified in the ABE v Repeal Now complaint—specifically 3 c. re: additional amendments to change Jim Lot Turner as contributor to Lot Inc.

On Repeal Now's list of previously submitted reports, I'm not seeing any listed that had an amendment description of "correct initiative reference on expenditures" and some are missing that had an amendment description of "correct initiative reference on debt." I'm trying to find two of them so I again amend to address the Lot Inc. issue.

I've attached the versions of the two IE reports that I'm trying to find so I can (once again) amend.

Thanks John.

Cheryl.
